Is It a Surprise

Why this Store Sells More Goods than Any Other?

In spite of the bad weather Saturday, our store was continually crowded with enthusiastic buyers. Its reason is simply because when we promise reductions in prices the public places full confidence in our ads, knowing when they call they get the stuff just as advertised.

All Our Winter Goods Must Be Closed Out to Make Room For New Spring Goods.

TEACHERS ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS

Muskogee, Okla., Feb. 21.—The election committee of the Oklahoma Teachers' Association in annual session here, elected the following officers for the ensuing year Tuesday night:

President, Thomas W. Butcher, Enid; vice-president, W. T. Dodson, Frederick; secretary-treasurer, W. W. Cunningham, Shawnee; chairman of the executive committee, R. E.

Toppe, Ponca City; members of the executive committee, L. E. Christian McAlester and M. L. Perkins, Ada.

WOULD PUT LEGISLATORS

ON A FLAT SALARY

A flat $600 a year salary for legislators, whether they serve fifteen days or the entire year, is proposed in a house concurrent resolution introduced Tuesday by Speaker Durant, Anthony of Stephens and Rexroat of Carter. The resolution would submit to the people a constitutional amendment to that effect.

The constitution at present provides that legislators shall be paid $6 a day for sixty days of regular session every two years, and $2 a day whenever the regular session runs over, for each day over the first sixty days. This automatic decrease in salary was provided to prevent the legislature remaining in session too long, and it was worked successfully so far.

Special sessions are extra to this of course, and at such the legislators draw $6 a day.

The constitution also allowed the first session to run six months, at $6 a day.

At $600 a year flat, a legislator would receive $1,200 for his two years' term.

LEGISLATIVE HAPPENINGS

OKLAHOMA SENATE DEALS WITH PROHIBITION BILL.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Feb. 21.—The senate tonight completed amendments to the prohibition law and will probably have a roll-call on final passage tomorrow.

A determined effort was made by Senators Harlin, Coffey, Echols and others to secure adoption of an amendment providing that County Commissioners should sell confiscated liquors out of the state and apply the money to the county court fund. This was defeated by vote of 10 to 24.

The bill provides for destruction of liquors as soon as adjudicated contraband and penalizes officials refusing to do so. In addition to the general penalties for violating the prohibition law the bill as amended by the senate adds that all persons convicted shall be disfranchised for five years. The senate refused to change the bill as adopted in committee of the whole.

A communication from F. F. Cain, chief state enforcement officer, was read offering rewards of $100 and $200 for evidence showing corrupt practices of enforcement officers during his term of office.

As returned to the senate from committee of the whole, the prohibition law amendment over which controversy arose today gives legal recognition to the amount of liquor one may lawfully possess at his place of business, place of amusement or residence. In the former instance it is limited to one quart, over which no question can be raised. In residences the limit is three gallons of whisky or wine and one cask of beer and if the liquor is assorted the limit one cask. While not satisfactory in the senate, yet it recognizes a limit, which, if sustained by the courts, they believe can further be restricted.

Bootlegging Situation.

The bootlegging situation, however, is to this extent unrestricted, for, as pointed out by Senator Brownlee, (rep.) sales can be as well made from a quart bottle as from a barrel, only the vender will have to have his supply secreted in easy distance of the place of business.

The same rule will apply to residences if the conference committee, which will consider the bill, sustains the senate's position, yet there is a definite embargo against resorts having in possession a half car load of beer at one time and claiming in court it is for the personal and medicinal consumption.

The greatest concession made by advocates of the bill was in the so-called removal section under which the governor asked authority to put out of office an official who failed to enforce the prohibitory law. As the committee recommended it the power to remove remains with the courts, and the governor is even prevented from suspending a derelict officer before the charges have been sustained. Proceedings are to be started upon a sworn accusation of ten citizens laid before the governor, who is authorized to send a referee to the county to take testimony.

If the charges are sustained, then the governor may suspend the officer and direct either the county attorney or the attorney general to begin ouster proceedings in the district or superior court. The officer may have hearing within ten days, if the court be in session, but if not in session, then within twenty days, by serving notice upon the chief justice of the supreme court, who designates a judge to hear the case. If the chief justice does not act within twenty days, suspension of the officer is revoked. The accused is allowed a change of judge, but is denied a change of venue. Republican members secured adoption of an amendment requiring the governor in filling vacancies to appoint from the political party of the suspended or removed officer.

The senate adopted an amendment by Senator Kendrick which includes the Kansas statute, declaring joints to be nuisances and providing that they may be abated by injunction. This feature has been sustained by the Supreme court of the United States.

HARRISON DID NOT SHOW UP

HARRISON PORTER FAILS TO APPEAR WHEN CASE IS CALLED—THREADGILL JURY
DISAGREES.

Monday morning in the district court the case against Harrison Porter, an Indian was called. Harrison had been very much in evidence ever since court convened, but when the particular time when he was wanted arrived, he was nowhere to be seen. The court then took up the case against Louis Threadgill, charged with burglarizing a store at Steedman. The case went to the jury about ten o'clock yesterday morning and the jury wrestled with it until 4 o'clock. They made a report to the court that an agreement was impossible, the vote standing ten to two. Judge McKeown stated that he did not believe in wringing a verdict from a jury over the conscience of the jurymen, but that he thought possibly that little more deliberation they might arrive at a verdict. However, another effort proved futile and the jury was discharged.

The jury stood ten for acquittal and two for conviction.

Harrison Porter's case was the only one besides this set for yesterday, and after the Threadgill case went to the jury nothing could be done. Meantime an alias warrant had been issued for the Indian, but it has not yet brought results.

This morning Oscar Johnson was placed on trial on a charge of larceny of some hogs, but he was discharged on an instructed verdict of not guilty given from the box.

Indictment Set Aside.

Purcell, Ok., Feb. 21.—Eliza Thomas, charged with the murder of Mrs. Sam Dillingham, has entered a plea of not guilty and his attorney Wayne Wadlington, pleaded against the sufficiency of the preliminary examination which was held before Justice Price, claiming that Thomas was denied his constitutional rights to a fair trial, inasmuch as the trial justice refused his appeals for a change of venue in the case. Judge McMillan overruled the motion to set aside the indictment.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

LOUISE: Your mother has a right to object to your using just any and every thing for your complexion—it is dangerous. For that oily complexion I would suggest Rexall Disappearing Cream—I think Gwin & Mays Co. have it—and for your chapped hands and lips, and to produce a white, velvety skin use Gwin's Favorite Cream in connection with Rexall Disappearing cream.

Mrs. X: Dandruff can readily be removed by shampooing once every two weeks with Rexall Shampoo Jelly. The hair can be kept soft and velvety and have that fresh, wholesome odor if you use "33" Hair Tonic—Gwin & Mays Co. have it—and it comes in 50c and $1.00 bottles.

Mayme: Yes, I know what is best for corns—Old Shoe Corn Relief is the best thing I ever heard of to remove corns. If it is a soft corn, buy some small corn pads, apply one over corn and touch up the corn, in the doughnut-like center with Iodine. You can get Old Shoe Corn Relief from Gwin & Mays Co. for 25c a bottle and they guarantee it to give satisfaction. When your feet get tired out sprinkle Rexall Foot Powder in the shoes or bathe the feet in Tiz.

SENATOR LORIMER MAY WIN FIGHT

Washington, Feb. 21.—If the senate were to vote on Lorimer tomorrow, which now seems somewhat in doubt, the attempt to unseat Lorimer would be probably defeated by four votes. On that roll call, if all the democrats were to vote, the lines-up would be as follows:

For Lorimer—Bacon, Bailey, Bankhead, Fletcher, Foster, Johnston, Smith (Maryland), Smith (South Carolina), Taliaferro, Painter, Thornton, Simmons and Tillman—13.

Against Lorimer—Clark (Arkansas) Chamberlain, Culberson, Davis, Frazier, Fore, Martin, Money, Newlands, Overman, Owen, Percy, Rayner, Shively, Stone, Swanson, Taylor, Terrell and Watson—19.

Of the foregoing, Senator Simmons, who favors Lorimer, and Senator Terrell, who is opposed to him, will neither vote or consent to being paired.

Two weeks ago the Lorimer contingent confessed to being beaten, with ten or fifteen votes short of a majority. Then came a sudden change affecting both democrats and republicans, and the current explanation vouchsafed for this change was that an understanding had been reached between the opponents of reciprocity and the Lorimer supporters, whereby enough Lorimer votes were to go against reciprocity to insure its defeat and in return the opponents of reciprocity are to help out Lorimer. There were also reports of other trades, as, for instance, the future creation of a Panama Canal Exposition commission, on which certain "lame duck" senators who intended to vote for Lorimer were to find snug berths.

Whatever the persuasion, the Lorimer supporters suddenly became aware within the last few days that they were on the brink of victory and today this became so clear that Senator Burrows announced his intention to press for a vote tomorrow, immediately after Senator Lorimer concludes his speech in his own defense.

GOOD SHOW LAST NIGHT.

Bob Neff's Company Will Play St. Elmo Tonight—Public Continues Pleased.

The Neff-Pennington Comedy Co. again made good last night. The play was "No Mother to Guide Her," starred in by the inimitable Miss Aline Neff. The Ada public is taking advantage of the opportunity to see a line of good plays this week presented by such an attractive and capable company.

Whatever his cast, Mr. Neff is popular on the stage as he is always off the stage among those who know him and his history.

St. Elmo is the bill tonight and there is prospect that the attendance will be large.

TGELER WANTS A NEW HEARING

Oklahoma City, Feb. 22.—Alleging coercion by the court along with thirty-nine other reasons, attorneys for Rudolph Tegeler, condemned murderer of James R. Meadows, today filed a motion for a new trial.

It is alleged that Judge Brown, when he told the jury Saturday afternoon that he would go home to Mangum to spend Sunday brought improper pressure to bear in order to secure a verdict. The verbal instruction regarding circumstantial evidence given to the jury an hour before the verdict was returned is also alleged by the attorneys to have been improperly given.

The motion is one of the longest ever filed in a local court. It covers twenty-five pages of paper closely typewritten. Judge Brown will be here from Mangum Friday to hear the motion and to pass sentence in case the motion is overruled.

February 22 is a double barreled holiday in Oklahoma and Texas. Both states not only celebrate Washington's birthday but Arbor Day as well.
It is a happy combination of remembering the past and looking to the future. In other words while paying a tribute to the heroic life of Washington we also look to the comfort of the coming generation by planting trees. While Washington won his laurels as a warrior, planting trees for the benefit of the future is pre-eminently a work of peace. It is indeed a fitting way to bid past and future, a past filled with strife and the future with the works of peace.

Thomas Alva Edison came from Nashville, Tenn., to New York in the early seventies to take a position as electrician in the offices of the Frank M. Pacific & Atlantic and Atlantic & Pacific telegraph offices, which were then located on Broad street near the junction of Wall. "Country Boy" was stamped all over him. He was a soft butternut; his long lanky hair stood out defiant of brush or comb. He was rather slight in those days, although he has put on round-ity with advancing years. At the time the Western Union had as rivals the companies named and in addition the Bankers & Brokers and I think the Southern & Atlantic. On New street, near by, there was another company, the Automatic, run by D. H. Craig, which was also in the rival combination.

With Mr. Edison were associated two young telegraph experts named Wright and Johnson, the former a short man with a deep, bass voice and the latter slighter and taller than Edison himself. They had as an experiment room a small light-tight wooden cabinet, fitted up in the office of the Franklin and it was an everyday occurrence for the three to rush out to escape into the main operating room from the smoke and fumes which issued from their little chamber as the result of their experiments.

Edison at that time had not made any of his wonderful inventions but he was regarded as a "coming man" in telegraphy, nevertheless. His first successful invention showed his quick and facile genius. He was very deaf and one had to speak quite loud to make him hear conversation; yet his ear detected the faintest metallic click.

All the telegraph companies used the same sounder—the Page sounder.
It had been invented by a man who had died some time previous, and the patent, which was in the name of his wife, was controlled by the Western Union.

One day, in the midst of business, and when brokers' messages and general telegrams, including the usual line of press dispatches, were on the books, the opposition companies were served simultaneously with an injunction, obtained from a judge of the supreme court in New York, restraining them absolutely from using the Page sounder. The blow fell like a thunderbolt from a clear sky.
They keys were silenced and in the great operating rooms there was "nothing doing."

The managers were in consultation over the dilemma when Edison sauntered into the operating room. Mr.
Murry Smith one of the managers, acquainted him with the situation.

Edison grinned and sat down at an instrument. He reached out for a sheet of tin, such as were used in making "manifold copies," and called for a stout pair of scissors. From one of his pockets which were always bulging with wire and other appliances of his craft—he took a pair of pliers. First he detached the Page sounder from the instrument, an intensely interested crowd watching his every movement. Then, with the scissors, he cut a section of the thin sheet of tin, about three inches wide and possibly four or five inches in length. He then sliced it at either end, making two points through each of which he bored a hole. He then curved it lengthwise, doubled up the ends and fitted them to the instrument precisely where the Page sounder had been previously connected and tapped the key. The clicking—and it was a joyful sound—could be heard all over the room.
There was a general chorus of surprise and admiration at the ready skill of Edison. "He's got it! He's got it!" was the exclamation, and sure enough, the responsive answer from the other end of the line—

"Did you get me?" "O K! O K!"

Within an hour, every instrument in the room was equipped with the improved sounder and business was resumed. The injunction was completely obviated and the officials of the rival companies broadly smiled.
Edison's star was in the ascendant.
He had won a brilliant victory with scarcely an effort. Similar sounders were improvised all over the various circuits, and business went on as usual, although the operating rooms, as some remarked, were somewhat "like small-sized boiler shops" for noise. In a few days, under Edison's instructions, the factory of the allied companies was turning out hundreds of well-made sounders of the new model.—Columbian.

Big Battleship for Uncle Sam.
Washington, Feb. 22.—The house late Tuesday completed the naval appropriation bill and will pass it Wednesday morning. As agreed to when read for amendment, it provides for two new battleships, two fleet colliers, eight torpedo boat destroyers and four submarine torpedo boats.

The two battleships are to be the largest ever constructed in this country, and, while the authorization fixes the displacement at 27,000 tons, there is likelihood they may go to 30,000 tons. The new battleships will have twelve 14-inch rifles, the heaviest battery ever placed on a ship in the world.

Although the first engagement of the Normal warriors is still a few weeks away, the base ball germ is unusually active and the bugs have already begun a talk-fest which will last from now until the closing season.

Prof. Little says that his selections already have the elusive pennant nailed to the flagstaff in the home park.

Every eye and energy are now turned toward base ball, with such fine material in hand Prof. Little says he will be able to interest the most fastidious of fans this season.

Kellis the new man from Allen, Okla., will make the team a valuable man.

McDaniel said that he had many years of real base ball stowed away.

Roddie is said to be a slugger, not one of these sky tearing pole artists but a fellow who nails the pellet on clared that he will give the youngster a thorough trial and if he shows promise that demands attention it is probable that he will be kept safely under cover with a dependable string attached.

At second McKinney will probably

The outfield situation is still murky but its worth a bet that Biles and Prof. Little's squad don't win the pennant.

APPROPRIATION FOR TEMPORARY CAPITOL

Oklahoma City, Feb. 22.—An appropriation of $100,000 for the construction of a building for the use of state officers is proposed in a bill introduced Tuesday by Senator J. J.
Williams. The money is to be taken from the general fund of the state.
The state board of affairs is authorized to contract for the erection of the building and to acquire title to or lease the land upon which it is to be built, and to enter into contracts for the disposition of the building at such time as the state may have a permanent capitol erected and ready for use. Nothing is specific as to the location of the building, except that it shall be in Oklahoma City.

Another new bill by Senator Sor-rells amends the initiative and referendum law so as to make the time allowed for filing petitions 90 days instead of 60 as under the present law.

Census Padded in 23 Towns.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—A considerable part of the annual report for 1909-10 which Census Director Durand has transmitted to Secretary Nagel of the department of commerce and labor is devoted to the subjects of overcounting, or "padding," and undercounting the population; of several deliberate conspiracies between private individuals and local special agents and enumerators to inflate census returns; of a desirability of a federal law prohibiting the unofficial circulation of printed slips containing census questions; and of the extent of the margin of error in the Thirteenth Census count.

After careful investigation of the returns and schedules by expert clerks in the bureau, it was found necessary to correct the population figures for some 23 cities of the United States, whose census returns had been inaccurately made or "padded," either intentionally or through carelessness or error. In no case, however, was any correction in the population figures made without first conducting a careful investigation in the city itself.

The director states that in several cities there seems to have been a deliberate conspiracy between private individuals and some of the special agents or enumerators, or both, to inflate, fraudulently, the census returns. It would be inadvisable to present the evidence of such conspiracies in any individual case at the present time, as only after investigation by the department of justice and the possible ensuing proceedings will the facts be fully known.

By direction of the president, the census bureau has already laid the facts thus far ascertained with regard to several cases of "padding" before the department of justice, and

It Does Pay to Know The Stores!

So great a part of every income is spent in stores, that it would seem that, next to "mankind," "the proper study of mankind is—stores!"

To the readers of the ads, the stores take on individual characters—they become familiar—they come to be UNDERSTOOD. The value-giving "habits" of each store—and the service rendered by each—are known, and rightly valued.

The ad-reader knows an exaggerated statement by an educated instinct; and an ad that comes even to the borderland of misrepresentation is a species of store-suicide.

Every merchant appreciates the NECESSI-TY of "making good" every advertised price concession—as well as the further NECESSI-TY of making price concessions that are real enough and notable enough to make the store's advertising WORTH answering!

Thus the readers of ads keep in touch with ALL buying opportunities in the store of the city that make for economy in the home expenses—and, thus to "know the stores" DOES PAY!

Fire at Idabel.

Idabel, Okla., Feb. 21.—A fire which broke out in the store of J.
E. Martin on Central avenue at 7:45 this evening by 8:30 had destroyed it, also the store of J. P. Tribble and the McCurtain County Beacon, a news

The buildings were all frame and the fire burned rapidly. A strong east wind placed the county court house and jail in imminent danger for a time, but by turning a stream of water on a building across an alley, firemen were able to stop the flames.
The loss is approximately $10,000.
The insurance is unknown.

Negro Educator Arrested.

Muskogee, Okla., Feb. 22.—S.
Douglass Russell, one of the foremost negro educators of the state and superintendent of the state industrial school for negro orphans at Taft, was arrested here today on an indictment returned by the federal grand jury, charging intimidation of voters at the last state election. Russell is a democrat and was an election inspector at Taft, a negro town. His enforcement of the grandfather clause was the cause of the indictment. Russell was appointed to his present position by former Governor Haskell. He was placed under a bond of $1,000 and his bond was promptly made by prom-

Russell's indictment is one of thir-

Death of Mrs. R. D. Dow.
This morning Mrs. Avo Dow, wife of Robert D. Dow and sister of Mrs. H. J. Brown, died at the residence of her son, Gerton Dow, on West 15th street. However, she took a turn for the worse yesterday and passed away at 7 o'clock this morning. The funeral services will take place at the residence of Gerton Dow tomorrow at 1 o'clock.
Deceased was forty-four years of age. She was married to Robert L. Dow in Tennessee twenty-four years ago. She was the mother of eight children, seven of whom are living. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church for many years.

FOR ALDERMEN

1ST AND 4TH WARDS

In the announcement column of the News appears the names of W. H. Ebey and M. D. Timberlake for aldermen of the first ward.

These men have done some good service for the town in this capacity before, both having been members of the council several years ago. Both men are liberal and progressive and they have been identified with every forward movement taken by the city. Successful in their own business they can be relied upon to faithfully discharge the duties of this thankful office if they are chosen to represent the First Ward.

For the Fourth Ward the News is authorized to announce L. J. Crowder and L. A. Ellison. Mr. Crowder has served about three years on the council and has always been punctual in his attendance on the meeting of the council and faithful in the discharge of his duty as he saw it. If elected at this time he will be the only man now serving who will be a member of the next council.

Mr. Ellison has been the assistant cashier of the Oklahoma State bank for the past three years and is a man who has impressed his friends and acquaintances with being a strong and well posted business man. He is well qualified for the office.

A Lady of Pizarro Tells Story of Awful Suffering That Cardui Finally Relieved.

Pizarro, Va.—"I suffered for several years," writes Mrs. Dorna A. Smith, "with that awful backache and the bearing down sensations, so fully described in your book.

"I tried doctors and other medicines and found little relief, until I was induced to try Wine of Cardui, when I found instant relief and today I can heartily recommend Cardui to all suffering women and think there is no other as good."

In some instances, Cardui gives instant relief; in others, it may take a little time. But in all cases of female trouble Cardui can be depended on to be of benefit, as it is a specific remedy for women and acts in a curative way on the womanly organs.

As a general tonic for women, to build up your strength, improve your appetite, bring back rosy cheeks and make you look and feel young and happy, nothing you can find will do so much for you as Cardui.

ED HARAWAY FOR

Ed S. Haraway authorizes the News to announce him as a candidate for treasurer of the city school board. Bailey Hissed.

Washington, Feb. 21.—A long sibilant hiss floated over the chamber of the United States senate today, rising above the expiring applause with which the galleries had greeted a comment reflecting upon the intelligence of the occupants. So far as many who have long been counted with it could recall never before had a hiss been heard in that dignified body.

The incident followed a remark of Senator Bailey of Texas, when Senator Crawford of South Dakota who had made a statement bearing upon the Lorimer case that brought forth an expression of approval from the onlooking opponents of the Illinois senator who sat in the gallery.

"No applause will be permitted from those in galleries," said the vice president, severely. The "applause," said the Texas senator, who was in a controversy with Crawford, "is a fair measure of the intelligence of the audience."

From that portion of the audience which had not previously joined in the applause there came a slight outburst, despite the presiding officer's caution, but as it trailed out came a hiss. No notice was taken by the senators or officers of that body.

I suffered from dull pains through my back and loins and other pronounced symptoms of kidney disease.
